More than life itself, more than anything else
I love Your presence, I love Your presence
More than I could want,
More than any craving
I love Your presence
I love Your presence

Dreams are found in Your presence
my life is restored in Your presence
It's Your presence for me
It's Your presence for me

Over everything else
I love Your presence
I love Your presence

Dreams are found in Your presence

Your glory is shown in Your presence
This flame comes alight in Your presence

It's Your presence for me
